About Ourselves . . .

This inaugural issue of "Chess News" reaches you with our compliments. A modest publication, it has been launched in the belief that there is scope and demand for a live journal bringing up-to-date news and games to New Zealand chess players, and to give a lead in other ways, especially fostering chess among young players. We seek to gain support in return for service. Time and cost have pushed elegance into second place; it is the contents which count, not the appearance. As support grows, "Chess News" will improve in every way.

PHILLIPS AND SARAPU SHARE HONOURS IN NORTH ISLAND CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Ortvin Sarapu and Rodney Phillips, both unbeaten, shared the honours at the North Island chess championship tourney, held in New Plymouth in mid-May. Both were unbeaten, drawing their own game and each conceding one other draw.

On 7-1 in the eight-round Swiss tourney, they finished  $1\frac{1}{2}$  points clear of Dr W. Reindler, who won his last-round game with B.H.P. Marsick to narrowly gain third place. There were 25 competitors.

The players were welcomed by the president of the New Plymouth C.C., Dr D.L. Williamson, and the tourney was declared open by the Mayor of New Plymouth, Mr A.G. Honnor, who is a chess player himself.

A highlight of the tournament was celebration of Rodney Phillips' 16th birthday on the Thursday. The other competitors presented him with a birthday cake.

 NEXT MONTH: More N.I. tourney games, full report and games from S.I. and H.B.-E.C. tournaments, and other special features.

Sarapu won a lightning tourney held before the prizegiving on the Saturday morning. He and Phillips played two games at 5sec per move, winning one each.

AN HONOUR AND A CHALLENGE

Many N.Z. chess players have not even been aware that an invitation has been extended to our national champion, Rodney Phillips, to play in the next World Junior Championships in Basle, Switzerland, next year. Taking part will be representatives of 12 nations, including the U.S.S.R., U.S.A. and other leading chess countries.

The invitation is a rare honour for N.Z. chess, but it has hardly even been discussed. The reason: money. A substantial sum is needed.

We believe most players will agree that our representatives should be enabled to take in at least some international events as officially-sponsored competitors, and that a unique invitation to a World Junior Championship should have priority.

Compulsory charges -- affiliation fees and subscriptions -- are quite properly kept to a minimum. There is no surplus to sponsor costly tours.

This invitation is an opportunity -- more, a challenge -- for those who are willing to contribute something extra. "C.N." is doing something about it. Will you?

Stop PressVAN DIJK EASILY TAKES S.I. TITLE

T. Van Dijk (Dunedin),  $4\frac{1}{2}-\frac{1}{2}$  (draw with Rasa), comfortably won the South Island Championship at Invercargill at Queen's Birthday weekend. Five rounds were played by 14 players. R.A. Rasa, G. Haase, I.D. Hayes, W.A. Petre and W.A. Poole, each scored 3-2. All are from Dunedin. Poole was unbeaten (4 draws, 1 win) and so was A.E. Turner (Invercargill), with 5 draws!!

A. McCall, W.A. Bristow (Inv.), W. Taylor (Chch) and B. Anderson (Dun) all tied in the B grade.

LYNCH AGAIN H.B.-E.C. CHAMPION

D.I. Lynch (Hastings) retained the Hawke's Bay-East Coast title at Gisborne over Queen's Birthday weekend, with a score of  $6\frac{1}{2}-\frac{1}{2}$  (draw with V. Graham, Waipukurau). He was well clear, G. Severinsen and R. Severinsen (Takapau) and S. Severinsen (Dannevirke) being next with 4-3.

R. Morse (Hastings) won the Reserves tourney, with P. Fischbach and Ll. Meredith (Gisborne) next.

NORTH ISLAND CHAMPIONSHIP - ROUND BY ROUND STORY

ROUND ONE

First surprise of the tournament came early, when one of the younger brigade, R.B.Hosking, won from former N.Z. champion D.I.Lynch, who embarked on a small combination to win a Pawn, then suddenly found himself threatened with loss of Queen or mate.

A minor surprise was the defeat of Wassilief, champion of Wiesbaden, in Western Germany, in 1951, by Mancewicz, who sacrificed Queen for Rook to win Queen for Pawn.

storm at the cost of the exchange. In a drawn-out game White could not find a win.

However, after his flying start Mancewicz failed to score again, except for the bye.

In this round Hutchings received what must have been as great a shock as Lynch was given in the first round. He had Howe's QN pinned. When Howe castled Black's Q was en prise -- and Hutchings forgot to move it.

Sarapu developed too quietly in a close form of the Sicilian against Mancewicz, who developed in an unorthodox manner, playing KB to QB4. A whirlwind attack was un- wound by Mancewicz as White, and Black's position was soon hopeless. Mancewicz did not find the right moves and Black weathered the

Whitehouse 3, Howe 3,
Phillips 2½, Sarapu 2,
Court 2, Hosking 2,
Hutchings 2, Marsick 2,
Baeyertz 2.

Whitehouse won from Baeyertz after the latter had failed to take advantage of risky play by his opponent. Court was in serious time trouble at both the first and second time controls in his game against Howe, who won. Phillips drew with Sarapu, who seemed to lose an advantage built up in the first session.

ROUND FOUR

Whitehouse 4, Phillips 3½, Sarapu 3, Howe 3, Marsick 3, Lynch 2½, Reindler 2½, Earle 2½.

Interest centred in the meeting between the two leaders. Howe went on the offensive early, but erred and Whitehouse won, to be out in front. But his lead was short-lived. He failed to score again in the tournament.

One inferior move by Whitehouse was all the opportunity needed by Phillips to force a win. Sarapu won a race against the clock with Court, who committed fatal errors in time trouble. Marsick caused Howe's second successive loss.

ROUND SIX

Phillips 5½, Sarapu 5, Marsick 5, Court 4, Whitehouse 4, Howe 4, Lynch 3½, Hutchings 3½, Reindler 3½, Wassilief 3½, Earle 3½.

There were several short games in this round. Phillips took the initiative early against Reindler, who resigned on the 18th move. It was a 16th birthday present for the national champion.

Whitehouse went down to Marsick and Lynch suffered his second loss, to Sarapu, who steadily restricted his opponent's position and then launched an overpowering attack.

ROUND SEVEN

Phillips 6½, Sarapu 6, Marsick 5, Hutchings 5½, Reindler 4½, Howe 4½, Court 4, Baeyertz 4, Lynch 4, Whitehouse 4, Wassilief 4, Earle 4, Pobar 4.

Phillips beat Court in devastating fashion, and Sarapu was always on top against Marsick. Apart from the two leaders, who were drawing away from the field, only 1 point separated 11 contenders for the minor placings.

ROUND EIGHT.

Phillips 7, Sarapu 7, Reindler 5½, Court 5, Howe 5, Marsick 5, Lynch 5, Baeyertz 5, Wassilief 5, Hutchings 4½, Ponimoni 4½.

Howe drew early with Phillips, while Sarapu won from Hutchings, to reach the lead for the first time. Court beat Whitehouse in a thrilling game, Lynch beat Bishop, Baeyertz beat Pobar and Wassilief beat Hosking. Wassilief had finished with a rattle, 2½-½ in the first 3 rounds, 4½-½ in the rest.

Interest centred on the Reindler-Marsick game, with the win of two Pawns giving Reindler second place.

New Zealand has six chess masters -- Ortvin Sarapu, W.E.Mason, J.B.Dunlop, R.G.Wade (an international master, now in England), A.W. Gyles and Rodney Phillips.

Until the appointment of Phillips earlier this year, there had been no opportunity for two ranking N.Z. masters to meet in competition. History was made on April 7, when Sarapu and Phillips met in the Auckland Easter tourney. The first game between N.Z. masters, it was won by Sarapu. These two masters have met twice since in tournament games -- in the North Island tourney (game in this issue) and in the Dominion Road C.C.'s 1958 championship. Both games were drawn.

Naturally, Phillips and Sarapu have met many times in the past few years, and last year they played a match. Sarapu won, 5½-2½. He won each of his four games with White, while Phillips scored 2½-1½ with White. To introduce these two masters we publish one of the games from this match, the fifth, which was Phillips' only loss with White and the only win for Black in the match. Notes are by J. R. Phillips.

Baeyertz beat Marsick by default.

Comfortable winner of the Auckland Easter tournament was O. Sarapu, who conceded only half a point in his seven games. Sarapu and Phillips met early, in the first tournament game between two N.Z. masters, and Sarapu won when Phillips erred in a race against the clock.

In the fourth round 17-year-old Brian Douglas, who was runner-up in the championship reserves at the 1957-58 Congress, held Sarapu to a draw and in the fifth round Phillips was in a very strong position against van Dam when he overlooked a simple mate which he could easily have prevented.

As for practically every N.Z. player, except the incurable optimists, a draw with Sarapu -- even the optimists would hesitate to dream of a win -- is a career highlight and of wide interest, we publish Sarapu's game with Douglas. Notes by Brian Douglas.

Around the World - BOTVINNIK REGAINS WORLD TITLE

The fourth world title match in the modern series was held in Moscow from March 4 to May 9.

M.Botvinnik, holder from 1948 until last year, opened sensationally, winning the first three games--the first and third with the Caro-Kann as Black. Defending champion V.Smyslov was reported unwell at the start. Flu harried both players and there were five breaks for health reasons.

Botvinnik retained his 3-point lead after 13 games and outplayed the titleholder in a Rook and Pawn ending in the 14th. He seemed poised to draw further ahead in the 15th, but forgot his clock and for the first time in his career lost on time.

Botvinnik won another R and P ending to draw 4 ahead again after 18 games, but Smyslov won against the Caro-Kann in the 19th.

When the 20th and 21st games were drawn, Smyslov had to win the rest to tie the match and hold the title. In the 22nd he caused consternation by playing the Dutch Defence -- at which Botvinnik is one of the greatest experts -- and vigorously scored his only win with Black.

However, the match ended when the 23rd game was drawn. Score: Botvinnik 12½, Smyslov 10½.

Openings: Grunfeld 6, Caro-Kann 5, Sicilian 4, Indian 3, Dutch 2, Reti 2, Meran Defence 1.

All games will appear in "Chess World," so will not appear in "C.N." However, in tribute to Botvinnik's fine endgame play we give the score of the second session of the 14th game.

NEXT MONTH: "How to Become World Champion."

Beginning a Series of Features on Brilliant
Young World Players

No.1 - THE JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPION.

In 1956 S.Reshevsky, undisputed No. 1 chess player in the United States since World War II, agreed to play a practice match against an up-and-coming 18-year-old. Reshevsky barely managed to save his reputation by winning the sixth game after five very hard-fought draws.

His opponent was William J. Lombardy, of New York, who went on to win the biennial world junior title tourney in Toronto in the middle of last year with a clean sweep. His score was 11-0.

In January this year Lombardy met Reshevsky again, in the crucial final round of the U.S.championship. The 14-year-old Bobby Fischer had a quick draw in this round and Reshevsky, with 9½ points, needed to win against Lombardy to tie Fischer's score, 10½-2½. Playing to avoid a probable draw, Reshevsky never quite neutralised the Kingside attack which Lombardy developed and Lombardy finished brilliantly to win. This gave Fischer the title -- Reshevsky's first failure to win the U.S.championship in five attempts. We publish the critical game.

Lombardy has since competed in the "Champion of the Americas" tournament in Bogota, Colombia, in which he tied for second place.

NEXT MONTH: O.Panno, "Champion of the Americas."

LAST - ROUND DISAPPOINTMENT.

- by Z. Frankel,

The following game was played in the last round of the Major Open tourney during the 1950-51 Congress held in Christchurch.

The leaders, Lushcott and Rose, had 8 points each and the writer 7, so if I won my last-round game and they lost theirs the result would have been a triple tie. This almost happened . . . the two leaders both lost their games.

On the other hand, I was confident of beating my opponent because I had won from him on all previous occasions. However, this shows how I was disappointed. It was not he who was the easy prey.

The game below shows how free development of Black's pieces allows him not only to win material when White makes a mistake, but also to wind up the game very quickly. (Notes by Z. Frankel).

The accompanying games introduce the editor of "C.N.," a journalist on the staff of the "Evening Post," Wellington. Learnt to play chess in Waipukura in his teens, Napier C.C. champion in 1949, and resumed playing last year after a break of several years. Playing strength, about the middle of the championship reserve field. Age 31, married, with three children.

Copy and competition entries must reach the editor by June 30.

CLUB GAME OF THE MONTH

The following game was not entered for the "Game of the Month" but we have no hesitation making the first award to K.R. Austin. The game is from the New Plymouth C.C. 1958 Championship.

Every month "Chess News" will award a 5/- book token for the best game from any N.Z. club competition. A second 5/- book token will be awarded to the best game played by a schoolboy in any club tournament.

This competition is open to all, no entrance fee. The editor's decision is final.

Sicilian Defence

WHITE	BLACK
K.R.Austin	S.Anchor
1.P-K4	P-QB4
2.N-KB3	P-Q3
3.P-Q4	PxP
4.NxP	P-K4

14.O-O-O	O-O
15.P-N5	B-K2
16.P-R5	C-C1

If B-R2 it is still lost after P-N6.
17.PxB BxPch
18.K-N1!

Black has no good move. If 21...., PxN; 22.RxQ, RxR; 23.C-K8ch, RxQ; 24.PxR(Q)ch, K-R2; 25.B-N8ch, K-R1; 26.RxPch, PxR; 27.C-N6 and mate next move. If 21...., C-B1 with the idea of exchanging; 22.RxPch, PxR; 23.CxBch, K-R2; 24.C-N6ch, K-R1; 25.QxPmate. And if Black ignores the White Q and N and tries belated development by 21...., N-C2 or B3; 22.N-N6ch, K-R2; 23.C-B5 and Black cannot stop NXRdble ch and mate next move.

This starts Black's troubles, leaving his QP backward and giving White complete control of his Q5. N-KB3 is usual

To prevent the Black Queen coming into play on the Kingside.
18. ... B-K2
Better is B-B3.
19.PxPch K-R1
If 19...., K-R2; 20.NxKP, PxN; 21.C-K6, B-B3 (forced); 22.RxQ, RxR; 23.C-B5ch, K-R1; 24.RxPch, PxR; 25.QxBch, K-R2; 26.QxR.

5.N-KB3	B-K2
6.N-CB3	N-KB3
7.B-KN5	P-QR3
8.BxN	BxB
9.B-B4	B-N5?

Better is B-K3.
10.P-KR3 B-R4?
The losing blunder.
11.P-KN4 B-N3
12.P-KR4 P-R3
13.C-C5 C-B2

20.C-K6 B-B3
Forced.
21.NxKP BxN
(see note). 22.RxPch, PxR; 23.CxPmate.

"C.N." BOOK TOKEN PRIZES.

Book token prizes awarded by "C.N." may be credited against subs.or against book purchases.

"C.N." SERVICE SECTION.

(A page devoted to service to New Zealand chess players.)

LENDING LIBRARY

To assist players and clubs who do not wish to build up an extensive chess library, "C.N." is willing to establish a lending library.

Annual subscription, 7/6 for one book at a time (including postage to the borrower). Books to be loaned for up to two months. The library will be built up as demand requires, and will not include major works such as N.C.O. or Modern Chess Endings.

Books now available: "The Basis of Combination in Chess," by J. du Mont.

"The Middle Game in Chess," by E.A. Znosko-Borovsky. "How to Play Chess Endings," by E.A. Znosko-Borovsky. "Check" (predecessor to "Chess World"), 1945 volume. "One Hundred Chess Gems," by P. Wenman.

BOOK PURCHASES

Under import control the flow of chess books into New Zealand has dwindled. For instance, the new edition of M.C.O. appeared recently, but few copies have reached N.Z. If any reader wants a particular book, "C.N." will endeavour to obtain it.

"C.N." is also prepared to make an offer for books and magazines which might have a re-sale value.

PHILLIPS FOR WORLD JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS ?

A week or two ago the editor of "C.N." was chatting with a chess-playing friend. New Zealand participation in international chess was mentioned.

"Our national champion is 15 and has been invited to play in the world junior championships to be held in Switzerland next year," said the editor.

"He must go," was the reply.

"It's a question of money and nothing has been done about it yet -- but something will be done."

"Well, put me down for whatever you think is needed," was the spontaneous reaction.

In that brief conversation a decision was made. Something is being done. "C.N." has taken the initiative. A campaign for funds is under way.

First step -- others will be announced in due course -- is a direct appeal for contributions.

All funds raised will be forwarded to N.Z.C.A., earmarked to foster international competition.

"Phillips for Basle" is the first objective.

"C.N.'s" campaign plans will be submitted to N.Z.C.A. Council, which meets on June 19.

To the Editor, "Chess News," 43 Wilton Rd., Wadestown, Wellington.

Enclosed please find cheque/postal note/money order for £ being donation to the N.Z. Chess Tours Fund.

I will contribute a further £.....s.....d in .....instalments during the appeal for funds to send Rodney Phillips to the 1959 World Junior Tourney.
