4 As Bob Smith reports, the Waitakere Trust Open goes from strength to strength, and after another success this year, the trend will continue in 1997.
8 Youth comes to the fore in the New Zealand Women's Championship.
10 Debo's Kapiti Rapid produced tense competition at the top, with some exciting games and last-round reversal of fortunes.
13 Junior championships have been held in several centres, with a 10 -year-old winning the Wellington schoolpupils' title.
14 FM Jonathan Sarfati recovers form to score a double in the Civic Easter.
15 Preparing for the Erevan Olympiad presents plenty of problems, in transport and finance, but in spite of a very generous donation, they're not all solved yet.
16 The mid-year rating list includes some dramatic changes, particularly for juniors.
22 The round-up of New Zealand news records several residential moves.
23 Ben Martin does his bit for Wood Green in Britain's prestige interclub event, and Tony Dowden unwinds a nifty combination in Germany.
25 NM Peter Stuart's international review shows how the young challengers are catching up on Kasparov.

19th Waitakere Trust Open

Boasting six current or former national champions and three of this year＇s open Olympiad team，the 19th Waitakere Trust Open was probably the strongest ever． Twelve of the 22 players in the A grade were rated over 2000 ．In all 70 players competed in the three separate tournaments，for over $$ 2600$ in prize money．
This year＇s tournament was held in a new venue－the Waitakere Licensing Trust＇s Lincoln Green Motor Hotel in Waitakere City．Play was in the sponsor＇s plus new conference room，with a separate analysis room and dinner and drinks just a stone＇s throw away．Out－of－towners stayed at the hotel at very reasonable rates，and were reportedly very happy with the accommodation．
Digital clocks were used on all boards in the A grade，courtesy of the organising club， Waitemata．
Turning to the play，Wellingtonians IM Russell Dive and FM Anthony Ker were among the favourites，while their major rivals included FMs Paul Garbett and Martin Dreyer and NM Bob Smith．IM Ortvin Sarapu and recent Russian emigre Alexei Kulashko were others who it was felt might make life difficult．

Round－by－round

Round 1：The top half almost managed a clean sweep，only NZ Major Open winner Russell Metge 1716 stopping the perfect swiss result by drawing with Sarapu when Ortvin apparently became confused by the digital clock．Russell Dive showed he was in good form with a brilliant win over Roger Perry．
Round 2：Only Kulashko maintained a perfect record，beating Olympiad debutante Scott Wastney．Ker drew with Dreyer， Garbett drew with McLaren and Dive drew with Stuart．The upset of the round was

By NM Bob Smith
Smith＇s loss to Ralph Hart 2003 after he sacrificed a pawn for pressure and then misplayed a drawn position．
Round 3：Kulashko kept up the pace by beating Hart．Ker defeated McLaren，Dive had an easy win after Russell Metge blundered a piece inside a dozen moves，and Garbett beat Sarapu in a game of mutual mistakes．Dreyer also stayed up with the leaders when he benefited from Stuart＇s blunder．Smith had an unconvincing win over Perry．Leaders：Kulashko 3；Ker， Garbett，Dive，Dreyer $21 / 2$ ；Smith，Hart， Radojevic 2.

Round 4：The crucial Sunday morning round．Kulashko was dragged back by Ker， who confidently tumed down a draw from an inferior position and went on to win．Dive also won，after Smith gained compensation for his sacrificed pawn but then misplaced his bishop．Garbett and Dreyer drew after Paul managed a perpetual when a rook down．Leaders：Ker，Dive $31 / 2$ ；4Garbett， Kulashko，Dreyer 3.
Round 5：Ker and Dive predictably drew （but had to play 20 moves under the tournament rules！）．Garbett and Dreyer seized their chances to catch up，the former exploiting some weakening moves by Kulashko，the latter beating Hart．McLaren scored his second win in a row to reach $31 / 2$ ， but that proved half a point short of the prize list．In other games，Stuart beat Sarapu after the latter missed a drawing chance and exchange down，while Smith could only draw with Peter van Dijk 2000 with the black pieces．
So the A grade ended in a four－way tie for first between Ker，Garbett，Dive and Dreyer． They each won $$ 275$ and shared the new trophy officially awarded for the first time this year（but engraved back to 1978 with the names of all the winners）．For Dreyer，it was a special achievement－the third time running he has won or shared first place． Anthony Ker can boast a perfect record in the Waitakere Trust Open－one attempt for one victory（！），while this was Garbett＇s tenth win in the tournament，and Dive＇s second． For the record，other names to feature prominently on the new trophy include 0 Sarapu（7 times）and R Smith（4）．In 19 years Ewen Green is the only player to win the toumament with five straight victories－ in the first year， 1978.

Other grades

In the B grade，restricted to players under 1750，top seed Geoffrey Gill 1728 set the pace with four straight wins，but came unstuck against Waitemata＇s Bruce Tidey 1608 in the final round．The win gave Tidey clear first with $41 / 25$ ，and $$ 250$ ．
The C grade（under 1400）featured a tie for first between youth and experience．16－year－ old Daniel Goudie（Waitemata．1273）and octogenarian Merv Morrison（Auckland Chess Centre，1285）won their first four games and drew their last－round encounter， to win $$ 125$ each．They were closely followed by John Pakenham and New Zealand women＇s champion Winnie Ong， who scored 4.
But that was not enough to give Winnie the prize for the best performance by a female． That went to Edith Otene 1291，who opted to play in the $B$ grade and scored a very creditable $21 / 2$ ，also winning a grade prize．
The prize for the best junior performance went jointly to Russell Metge，who scored $3 / 5$ in the A grade，and Alan Dunn，who scored $4 / 5$ in the B grade．

Prizes were presented by Ross Dallow， chairman of the Waitakere Licensing Trust （he also opened the toumament）．Ross intimated that，next year being the 20th anniversary of the Waitakere Trust Open， chessplayers can expect an even bigger and better event．The tournament is already pencilled in for May 3 and 4，so put that in your diary．

1996 New Zealand Women＇s Championship

Auckland Chess Centre conducted the 1996 New Zealand Women＇s Championship at Easter under difficulties，because the centre accepted the responsibility at a late stage as no other club offered to host the event．

The championship attracted only seven entries，but while the tournament ran smoothly there was a surprise start when the titleholder and favourite，Vivian Smith，lost in the first two rounds to the Ong sisters， Winnie and Joyce．Vivian played herself into form and finished strongly，but could not catch up as Joyce and Winnie Ong went on to win all their other games．
Joyce，19，and Winnie， 17 met in the last round，and the title went to Winnie．There were no draws．Final results： 1 W Ong 6／7， 2 J Ong 5， 3 V Smith 4， 4 Helen Courtney 3， 5 L Parlane 2， 6 E Otene 1， 7 Z Kingston 0 ．

Debo＇s Kapiti Rapid

By Les Jones

On Saturday，April 20，the Kapiti Chess Club hosted the DEBO＇s rapid－play chess tournament in the Hadfield room，Coastlands Shoppingtown．Thanks to the generous sponsorship from the Lion Foundation and DEBO＇s Direct Liquor Drive－inn Paraparaumu the $$ 1650$ prize fund attracted 42 players from all over the region and guaranteed some exciting chess．
The first of the six rounds was delayed for a few minutes while we waited for Bob Smith，whose flight from Auckland was an hour late（not the fault of Wellington＇s weather）．Despite the delay Bob（who only had four hours＇sleep）and most of the top seeds made it through the first round unscathed．There were a few upsets， however．Mark van der Hoorn 1901 lost to Ted Frost 1501，Paul Tuffery 1888 lost to Aaron Barlow 1470，and Shamnika Rupasinghe 1851 could only draw against John Whibley 1422.

Round 2 and no upsets as the top seeds settled down to business．Aaron Barlow continued with his good form by drawing with 13th seed，John McDonald．

Round 3 saw the four top seeds winning their games；IM Russell Dive beat Mark Sinclair，FM Anthony Ker beat last year＇s tournament winner Rajko Mastilovich，a tired Bob Smith beat Gavin Marner，and FM Jonathan Sarfati beat Chris Burns．

Round 4 and things were getting interesting．Only the top four seeds were on the maximum 3 points．Dive had to play fellow joint NZ champion Smith，while Wellington＇s Ker and Sarfati were paired against each other．Both games were extremely tense，and in the time scramble at the end of the games Dive and Ker emerged the victors and，with just two rounds to go， were a whole point clear of their rivals．
Round 5 and Ker and Dive were drawn to play each other．The winner of this game was guaranteed a share of the $$ 500$ first prize．However，after a very tense battle and with only a few seconds left on both clocks， neither player could force a win and a draw was agreed．Meanwhile，Sarfati and Smith won and now were only half a point behind the two leaders．
Round 6 was the final round and Dive was paired with Sarfati，while Ker was paired with Smith．For both Sarfati and Smith it was a must－win situation，while Dive and Ker could afford to draw and still share first． Both games were hard－fought，with Sarfati and Smith complicating the positions early on，and Dive and Ker using up a lot of time as they tried to calculate a safe route through the tactical possibilities．In the time scramble at the end of these games，Sarfati and Smith retained the initiative and managed to force wins against their opponents．
While all eyes had been watching the top boards in the final round，Mark Sinclair managed to sneak through from the middle of the field to tie with Sarfati and Smith for first place by beating Ross Jackson．
The $B$ grade was won by Ross Jackson， with Martin Post and Scott McLeod second equal．The C grade was won by Tyrone Garratt（Napier）with John Whibley and John Cook second equal．
Here are the two crucial last－round games， plus another of Bob Smith＇s wins．

Waikato Open

With a field of 20 ，numbers were a little light for the 1996 Waikato Open，perhaps because it was squeezed between the Waitakere Open and Easter．However，the tournament was reasonably strong with the top group including Ewen Green，Scott Wastney and Ferenc Fabri．
Outright winner was Fabri with $5 \frac{1}{2}$ ， followed by Green 5 and Bob Gibbons $41 / 2$ ． The elective bye was introduced in this tournament，allowing players to take a half－ point bye with advance notice．Four players took advantage of this．

Correspondence matches

New Zealand correspondence players are competing in nine international matches，and progress scores（with the number of boards and the name of the team captain）are：
Italy（ 8 ，Brian Millar）4－8．
Canada（20，Michael Freeman） $151 / 2-171 / 2$ ． Sweden（16，Nick Cummings）3－3．

A selection of correspondence games will appear in the next issue of $N Z$ Chess．

Junior and age group championships

Several regional junior and age group championships have been held，as preliminaries for the national junior and age group championships to be held in Wellington in the second week in July．
As this issue of $N Z$ Chess went to press there were 19 entries in the national event，a fortnight before the closing date．The expected particpants include David Guthrie， Russell Metge，and Rosaleen and Teresa Sheehan．Most of these entrants are rated，so the event will be nationally rated－giving several unrated participants the opportunity to join the national standard rating list．

Otago

In Drunedin， 18 players competed in the Otago event，which was a pleasing increase on last year．The event was run as a 40／40， and top seed David Gutbrie won with a picket fence， $8 / 8$ ．The runner－up was Kyaw Soe Win Pau，on $6 \frac{1}{2}$ ，who also won the J J Marlow Trophy for best schoolpupil．David Galletly was third，and was top player under 16．Ismail Jadallah was the runner－up in the under－16 section，with Hwee Sin Chong third．
In the under－ 12 section Nicola Porteous， Sam McCall and Paul Chong all scored 4， with Nicola being placed first，Sam second

Guthrie in Asian junior

New Zealand＇s outstanding junior of the past three years，David Guthrie，has decided to play in the 1996 Asian Junior Championship，which will be held in Macau （on the Asian mainland just south of Hong Kong），from 12 to 27 August．

NZCF is contributing $$ 200$ towards David＇s travel costs．

FIDE advises that games from this toumament can be seen on the Macau Chess Federation＇s Intemet home page at： http：／／www．unitel．net／chess．macau／ and Paul third．Nicola won the Gerald Williams Trophy and Sam and Paul shared the John van Zoomeren Trophy．
There were five girls in the field，and Chamila de Alwis and Hwee Sin Chong share the Jackie Sievey Trophy．

Canterbury

Only eight players contested the Canterbury championships，with Thor Russell taking the junior title with $61 / 2 / 7$ ．， ahead of Matthew McNabb 6 and Craig Hall 5．Heathcliff Johnson－Rongo，with $4 \frac{1}{2}$ ，won the under－16 title and Thomas Kitson，on 2， the under－ 12 ．

Wellington

Justin Phillips，the top seed，won the Wellington junior title with $5 / 5$ ．The $30 / 30$ event attracted 17 entries，including four girls，so for the first time under－16 and under－ 12 girls＇titles were awarded．
History was made in the under－16 and schoolpupil sections，which were won by primary school pupil， 10 －year－old Patrick Savage，with 4 points．Patrick was joint runner－up overall，with Bryan Clark，and naturally also won the Under－ 12 section．
Joseph Wong was runner－up in the under－ 16 section，with Arvind Vinjimoore and Ashley Bishop third equal，and 7 －year－old Ivan Luketina was second in the under－12 section．Joseph Wong and Cameron Jack were runners－up in the schoolpupil section．
The under－16 girls title was shared by Tracy Collen，Ingrid Bauer and Deborah Crook，with Ingrid and Deborah sharing the under－12 title．

Upper Hutt

Ten players competed in a $15 / 15$ tournament in Upper Hutt，with Ashley Bishop 5／5 winning the under－ 16 event ahead of David Kevey $31 / 2$ and Ben Kelly 3. The under－12 event was won by Craig Addley $5 / 5$ ，with Ivan Luketina second on $31 / 2$ and Genevieve Luketina third on 3.

Sarfati takes Civic Easter double

In Wellington＇s Civic Easter tournaments， FM Jonathan Sarfati led throughout in both the three－day standard event and the one－day rapid on Easter Monday．In the open Sarfati scored $51 / 2 / 6$ and drew with Richard Glover in the last round after winning all earlier games，and in the rapid he scored $5 / 6$ after drawing with Chris Burns in round 5 and Martin Post in the final round．
Gavin Marner was runner－up in the open with $41 / 2$ ，losing to Sarfati and drawing with Rajko Mastilovich．Third place was shared by a group comprising Richard Glover，Scott Wastney（who did not meet Sarfati and lost to Alan Winfield and Mastilovich in the middle rounds），Mastilovich，Scott McLeod and Winfield．
There followed Robert Edwards，Michael Nyberg，Rosaleen Sheehan and John Mazur on $31 / 2$ ，and Eddie Sarfas and Ted Frost on 3.
McLeod took the B grade prize，half a point ahead of Edwards，Nyberg and Mazur． Rosaleen Sheehan took the C grade by half a point from Sarfas．
In the rapid Sarfati beat Hilton Bennett in round 3 and Mastilovich in round 4，to gain a clear lead from Post and Bennett．While Sarfati and Burns drew in round 5，Post beat Zyg Frankel to be clear second on 4 and be paired with Sarfati in the lat round．They quickly drew，while Mastilovich beat Burns and Bennett beat Tim Hare．This left Post， Mastilovich and Hare second equal on $41 / 2$ ， abead of Alan Aldridge on 4 and Anthony Steventon，McLeod and Burns on $31 / 2$ ．
Given the opportunity in the rapid event， Sarfati produced this vigorous win．

Preparations for sending a New Zealand team to this year＇s Olympiad in Erevan have run into a mix of problems which seem to affect every Olympiad－especially those held in remote countries such Armenia， which present massive transport problems for the rest of the world．
Team captain Michael Freeman has been wrestling with the transport problems，and international efforts have been made to arrange charter flights to Erevan from various points around the world．Latest advice from FIDE is that 79 countries have applied to participate in charter flights．

The latest arrangements have the New Zealand team departing on Friday， 13 September，to Athens via Singapore．There they plan to join one of the special charter flights．Return travel is by the same route， arriving home on 7 October．However，to date the organisers have not confirmed details of costs and schedules of the charters．

The costs of travel led to the withdrawals of FM Anthony Ker and Mark Sinclair from the open team．At a late stage FM Mark Noble was added，and Michael Freeman agreed to make a sixth part－time playing member．
The playing order of the open team is：
1 FM Ben Martin 2 FM Martin Dreyer 3 NM Bob Smith 4 FM Mark Noble 5 Scott Wastney 6 Michael Freeman
The women＇s team has been more settled， with no changes．The playing order will be：
1 Vivian Smith 2 Rosaleen Sheehan 3 Edith Otene 4 Teresa Sheehan
While NZCF Council has been sympathetic to the need for a separate team captain for the women＇s team，no－one has come forward to fill this role．However，the addition of Mark Noble strengthens support for the women＇s team，as he has been coach to the Sheehan sisters for several years．
The transport problems mean that unwanted ovemight stays might be inevitable，in both directions，and these add to the cost．NZCF Council has decided that it can give only limited assistance towards this extra cost

The federation＇s appeal for financial support for the Olympiad resulted in a very generous anonymous donation of $$ 1000.00$ ， which has boosted the total well above the response for the last Olympiad．As Alan Fletcher has pointed out，every dollar counts and donations of $$ 5$ or $$ 10$ are just as welcome as those of $$ 50$ or $$ 100$ or more

Features of 1-996 N.Z. rating list

Some notable achievements and a few changes in presentation are included in the mid-year New Zealand rating list which appears on the following pages.
Several players, particularly some of our most promising juniors, have made substantial gains in rating in the period. Most notable of these is Winnie Ong, whose $6 / 6$ win in the New Zealand Women's Championship has lifted her rating by 308 points, from 1258 to 1566 , and from 397th to 211th on the overall list.

Russell Metge's Major Open win at Congress has lifted him by 188 points, from 1716 to 1904, and from 131st to 65 th place. Other noteworthy gains include:
Matthew Barlow +121, from 2030 to 2151. Peter Hawkes +101 , from 1958 to 2059.
Mark Sinclair, +69, from 2044 to 2113.
Nigel Metge +68, from 2020 to 2088.
David Guthrie +52, from 1979 to 2031.
In addition to Winnie Ong, sister Joyce gained 98 points, rising from 1337 to 1435 , and Rosaleen Sheehan gained 72 points, rising from 1297 to 1369.

Changes in presentation

The published lists in the past have included players who have been active in clubs in the previous two years. The present list also includes some players who have been active, but without a club identification. In the club column these players are marked "?."
Juniors (mostly school pupils) who have gained ratings but are not club members are identified with "SS". A few players who have registered this year, but have not given club affiliations, are marked "ZZ."

Arising from the introduction of registration, accuracy has been improved through some amendments to names, addition of first names, and changes in club membership which had not been notified.

Lists of top junior players, in age groups, and women and girls, will be published in the next issue of NZ Chess.

1996 Latvian Gambit tournament

Leonard McLaren was outright winner in a field of 23 which contested the A grade in Howick-Pakuranga CC's 1996 Latvian Gambit tournament. Leonard, seeded at number 6, scored $51 / 2 / 6$, drawing with Martin Dreyer and winning against Ewen Green but not meeting any of the top four seeds
Dreyer finished second on 5, drawing with Ferenc Fabri as well as McLaren. Fabri on $41 / 2$ was third, with Alexei Kulashko fourth on 4, ahead of Paul Garbett, Bob Smith, Ewen Green, Peter Stuart, Benji Lim, Geoffrey Gill and Robert Goris all on $31 / 2$.

Paul Spiller reports that McLaren and Dreyer played their usual level of consistent chess. Top seed Aleksei Kulashko started off rather poorly, but Paul believes this was because he was not used to playing this kind of time control. Kulashko won his last three games and will be a great asset to the Auckland chess community.
Fabri also played strongly, but Paul Garbett could not repeat his success two years ago, losing to Fabri and Scott Wastney.
In the under 1700 section, with 39 entrants, Justin Davis played consistently to win with 51/2/6 (draw with Eddie Arvin). Other contenders succumbed to last-round pressure, notably Eddie Arvin who had previously beaten both Richard Beesley and Ben Giles.
Joyce Ong had $4 / 5$ and a chance of a good placing but slipped up in her last-round clash with Richard Beesley.
Last year's joint winner, Robert Phillips, finished in a tie with Beesley for second on 5, after a last-round win over Eddie Arvin. There followed Mark Henderson, and Arvin on $41 / 2$, and top seed Ben Giles, Tom Evans, Niel van der Walt, Joyce Ong, Daniel Goudie and Mark Chilvers on 4.

New Zealand news

Results supplied to NZCF for rating recently，and reports on club activity，show that several have moved recently．On completion of their studies，Peter McKenzie， Stephen Lukey and Paul Tuffery have moved from Christchurch to Wellington
Geoffrey Gill has moved from Auckland to Whangarei and with Paul Bell has formed a club in the northern city．Its members include Peter van Dijk，who has transferred from Wellington，and Robert Wansink who has moved back from Dunedin．
Michael Schwass，formerly in Wellington， has taken up a post in Dunedin，where Mark Sinclair is also living at present．
Martin Sims，a promenent correspondence player，has moved from Rotorua to Palmerston North

North Shore

Leonard McLaren has won the second leg of the North Shore CC rapid championship with $5 / 6$（loss to Peter Stuart）．Jim Mathieson，Naveed Aslam and Philip Hair scored $41 / 2$ ，ahead of of Peter Stuart and Philip Hair on 4.

Civic

Civic CC has moved from strength to strength this year，with an increase in playing membership of some 50 per cent．At present nearly 30 members are competing in five graded round robin groups．Russell Dive and Anthony Ker are competing for honours in the top group．
In the Summer Cup NM Richard Sutton gave the field a full point start，joining in d round 2 ．In the last five rounds he scored $5 / 5$ to win from Paul Dunn，Martin Hill and Scott McLeod on $41 / 2$ ，and Arthur Pomeroy， Alan Winfield and Colin Byford on 4.
The B grade Knockout Cup was won by Paul Dunn，who won a playoff with Martin Hill after they had drawn their final game． Bill Ramsay beat Zoltan Shardy to take the C grade．

Canterbury

Geoff Davies has taken over as secretary of Canterbury CC from Pat Jordan，who is concentrating this year on coaching junior players．The other officers－president Mark Guy，vice－president Alistair Compton and treasurer Peter Boag－are unchanged． However，Mark Guy has a heavy workload this year as he has been appointed coach to the Canterbury Golf Association．

Otago

The Otago Westpac Autumn rapid tournament attracted an improved entry of 22 players．Tony Dowden drew with Tony Love and David Guthrie to win with $5 / 6$ ， ahead of Love，Guthrie and Dallin Heperi 4ㄴ／2；Hamish Gold 4；and Aaron Batchelor， Malcolm Foord and Ray Stone 3.

1997 N．Z．Masters tournament in Wanganui

Chess has been included again in the programme for the 1997 New Zealand Masters Games which will be held in Wanganui from February 1 to 9 next year， with National Mutual as the sponsors．
The Masters Games alternate each year between Wanganui and Dunedin，and this year was in the Otago programme with a minimum age of 35 ．There were 18 entrants and the joint winners were Tony Love and Tony Dowden．
The 1997 games will include no less than 55 different activities，and the Wanganui organisers are preparing for the number of participants to top 7000 for the first time．
Chess will be played on Saturday，February 8 ，with a minimum age of 35 ．Anyone interested in competing in chess or any of the other activities can write for the programme and entry forms to National Mutual NZ Masters Games，PO Box 500， Wanganui．

Ben Martin plays interclub in Britain

FM Ben Martin is completing his studies in Britain，and has not played in individual tournaments recently．But he still plays for Wood Green in the elite nationwide Four Nations Chess League interclub tournament．
After four rounds Wood Green shared the lead，but in a roller－coaster ride in the next six rounds，they dropped back to fourth then recovered to third with three rounds to go． Midland Monarchs and Slough were first and second，with GM Murray Chandier＇s BCM team sixth．
When BCM narrowly beat Richmond，GM Jonathan Levitt at board two for BCM gave 12－year－old Luke McShane his second win against a GM from this position：

New role for Deep Blue

IBM＇s Deep Blue，the chess computer programme that failed to beat Garry Kasparov，is proving its adaptability in a new role．It has been reported that Deep Blue is being used in a weather forecasting capacity for the Olympic Games in Atlanta． It will be keeping an eye on weather patterns and giving up－to－the minute reports to athletes and spectators．

In round 9 Wood Green trounced North－ west Eagles．The following game was Ben Martin＇s contribution to the win．

Dowden Combination

Tony Dowden writes that he and his wife recently visited Germany for a month（where he met his wife＇s family for the first time）， and while there he played in the Baden Rapid Championship．The field of 110 included 5 GMs and 20 IMs ，and being seeded just below half－way Tony found that in Round 1 he played top seed GM Viktor Gavrikov 2605，formerly of Russia but now living in Switzerland．

Tony duly lost in the endgame and Gavrikov went on to win with $8 / 11$ ，but Tony＂rallied＂to finish with $5 / 11$ and beat FM Gerhand Zunker GER 2195 from the following position：

Amsterdam

A decade of Max Euwe commemorative tournaments sponsored by VSB－Fonds，a Dutch bank，ended with this year＇s event in March．And a memorable event it was，too， with Gary Kasparov losing in the first round to Bulgaria＇s young star Veselin Topalov who went on to take a share of first prize with the PCA champion．
Topalov＇s third round loss to Nigel Short when he，unwisely as it turmed out，repeated his first round play allowed a $\log$－jam on 2 points and all five leaders drew in round 4. After this Kasparov，Topalov and Vladimir Kramnik were left to fight for the top places， the last mentioned dropping out of the race when he lost decisively to Kasparov in round 7．Worse was to come for Kramnik as，in trying to make up the lost ground in round 8 ， he lost to Anand in round 8 from a slightly superior position．
Kasparov enjoyed a half－point lead after round 7 but Topalov caught up in the penultimate round and both players won their final games，against Gelfand and Piket respectively，Kasparov in spectacular fashion and Topalov in a longish endgame．

New York

England＇s Michael Adams scored an undefeated $81 / 2 / 11$ to win the category 13 ＂Chess－in－the－Schools International＂in March．His performance rating was around 2750．Bosnian GM Ivan Sokolov took second place， $11 / 2$ points behind with another hal point back to the quartet of Joel Benjamin （USA），Viktor Korchnoi（SWI），Valery Salov （RUS）and Patrick Wolff（USA）．

An unusual feature of the tournament was the division of the prize fund with hal （ $$ 10,000$ ）being awarded according to fina placings as usual but the other half being awarded as＂win money＂，the total number of wins（36）being divided into the $$ 10,000$ Thus Adams gained a bonus of almost $$ 1700$ for his six wins，a figure equalled by Korchnoi with his $+6-4=1$ record．

A strong open rapid tournament in this Belgian town was won by Larry Christiansen USA on tie－break from Andrei Kovaliev BLR．Both GMs won their first six games in the 300 player field and were content with a short draw in the final round．Top seed Artur Yusupov finished in a tie for third place on 6 points with fellow German GMs Ralf Lau and Jörg Hickl as well as GMs Ye Rongguang PRC，Krum Georgiev BUL and Alexander Wojtkiewicz POL．

Monaco

Vladimir Kramnik won the 5th Melodie Amber tournament，leading all the way in this combination rapid／blindfold event．The Fischer time control method was used with players having 25 minutes plus 10 seconds per move in the rapid games，the same but 20 seconds per move in the blindfold games in which the players entered their moves on computer monitors．

Kramnik was supreme in the blindfold games，scoring $9 / 11$ and finishing $1 / 2$ points ahead of Viswanathan Anand．Next were Vassily Ivanchuk on 7 and Anatoly Karpov on $6 \frac{1}{2}$ ．In the rapid games Anand and Ivanchuk headed the field with $71 / 2$ followed by Kramnik and Jeroen Piket on 7

The full scores were： 1 Kramnik（RUS） 16 2 Anand（IND）15； 3 Ivanchuk（UKR）14 12 ； 4 Gata Kamsky（USA）12；5－7 Karpov （RUS），Joel Lautier（FRA）\＆Alexei Shirov （ESP）11 $1 / 2$ ；8－9 Piket（NED）\＆J．Polgar （HUN）11； 10 Predrag Nikolic（BIH） $81 / 2 ; 11$ Ljubomir Ljubojevic（YUG）5； 12 Xie Jun （PRC） $41 / 2$.

Moscow
The first leg of the 1996 PCA Rapid Grand Prix was staged in the Russian capital in April with the by now familiar format of two－ game matches with 25 minutes per player and single lightning game play－offs in which Black（4 minutes to White＇s 5）has draw odds．Not for the first time Vladimir Kramnik and Gary Kasparov made it through to the final with the former winning．Both rapid games in the final were drawn and in the two－ game lightning play－off Kramnik won the first with the black pieces to take the match $2^{1 / 2}-1 \frac{1}{2}$ ．
Kramnik，however，was somewhat lucky to get past the first round as，after drawing with the white pieces against Short，he was probably losing with black until the Englishman failed to find the winning culmination to his attack．Perhaps one can no longer talk of Judit Polgar causing upsets but the scalp of Vassily Ivanchuk in the quarter－ finals might qualify．In the semi－finals Kramnik beat Polgar $11 / 2-1 / 2$ while Kasparov defeated Anand by the same score．

NZCF Council report

By NZCF President Ted Frost

Club changes

Following the changes in federation rules, the Palmerston North and Napier Chess Clubs have applied to rejoin the federation as associate members. Both clubs have had small membership in recent years, although Palmerston North reports healthy growth this season. Both clubs have a long history and have been strong in the past, both in playing strength and administration - both have had New Zealand champions as members and both have held Congresses.
A Whangarei club has also been formed, with members joining and registering through the Gambit club. This is the first time there has been a chess club within the national chess organisation in the far north.

Player registration

More that 360 players have registered so far under the new rules, and two or three major clubs have not yet sent in registration cards. The registered players include some 120 juniors - more than double the number previously identified by federation and there are at least two dozen female players.
Results sent in to federation for rating since the mid-year list closed off include at least 20 unrated players. They will be allocated code numbers which will be circulated to clubs, and can be added to their registration cards. This will assist identification in later tournaments.

NZ Chess homepage on Internet

Michael Freeman advised NZCF of his intention to launch of chess homepage on the World Wide Web. Council has supported this venture and will give it full support. This will include the supply of information, which will not be subject to any copyright restraints.
The address of Michael's homepage is: http://ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages /nzchess/

The launching of the homepage was followed by a request from Craig Blaxall, of PlaNet, for permission for PlaNet to use chess information. Council has agreed.

FIDE rating

In a series of recent FIDE rating lists Bruce Anderson CA has been given two ratings, because of a small discrepancy in the information notified to FIDE from two tournaments. NZCF has asked for this to be corrected and the latest letter from the FIDE president includes a correction.

Bruce has a FIDE rating of 2215 (previously he was credited with 2235 and 2155). The July 1 list should confirm that he now has only one rating.

Entries in Australian Masters

Several top New Zealand players were invited to play in the 1996 Australian Masters tournament in Melbourne, from June 30 to July 12, but other commitments caused some refusals.
Eventually, in spite of their subsequent Olympiad commitments, ICM Michael Freeman and NM Bob Smith accepted invitations to play.
The overseas players include Terry Toh SIN and Luca Barillaro ITA. Three Australian IMs taking part are Mikhail Gluzman, Alexsander Wohl and Stephen Solomon.

Ashburton's outdoor set

Roy Keeling, subject of a personality profile in the last issue of $N Z$ Chess, has written to make it clear that he was not the key person in setting up the outdoor chess board in Ashburton, but that the District Council was the moving force. The local Lions Club provided the men.

Roy also points out that his game against Stephen Coates was played in the 1995 South Island championship in Dunedin.
