4 The $107^{\text {th }}$ New Zealand Championship Congress run by Howick \& Pakuranga CC was a success in many ways, partly through the preparation and organisation, but enhanced by the participation of several popular overseas visitors. Our report, prepared by Paul Spiller, is also enhanced by the willingness of the visitors to contribute with annotations to some of the key games.
13 Paul Beach was the highest-rated player in the NZ Major Open, and his win was not unexpected.
15 Probably the upset of the congress was Herman van Riemsdijk's win from Ian Rogers in their game in the NZ Rapid Championship, which gave Herman first place in the event, and left a gaggle of kiwis $3=$ and sharing the NZ title.

17 Herman van Riemsdijk visited several centres, gave simuls and also found time for a coaching course based on his book The Final Countdown.
18 Our New Zealand news "round-up" features a family "double" in Waitemata CC, but that's the only club contributing to this issue.
20 The selection of games includes several well-annotated games from the team visit to Shenyang, China, late last year.

22 Bob and Vivian Smith found time for some chess during a Queensland holiday.
23 Gordon Hoskyn reports on a new adjudicator to settle those unfinished games in NZCCA competitions. 2000 zonal in Auckland.

25 The end-of-year rating list.
30 A shorter-than-usual overseas news report from Peter Stuart, but the usual range of interesting games.
34 Peter Stuart reports on a poorly-attended federation AGM.
The next issue: More annotated games from Congress.

$107^{\text {th }}$ New Zealand Chess Congress

A first class venue，superb playing conditions， top overseas players all combined to make the $107^{\text {th }}$ New Zealand Chess Congress held at the Waipuna International Hotel and Conference Centre a memorable and significant event in the long history of New Zealand Chess．
The Howick－Pakuranga Chess Club first began the planning of this event 18 months ago， intending to invite a number of strong overseas players to lift the profile of the event and also to give New Zealand players a chance for international title norms．The club sought and gained the backing of the Waipuna International hotel and Conference Centre，with the use of their main Exhibition Hall and Carbine Room for the event and reduced room rates for players．
The withdrawal of sponsorship from Sir Robert Jones in January 99 came as a bombshell for the organisers．Undeterred， however，preparation continued through the year with Paul Spiller liaising with the Federation sponsorship committee of Roger Perry and Martin Dreyer to follow up many and varied leads．A few weeks before Congress was due to begin a call was received from Martin to say he had some good news．A sponsorship deal had been secured and this combined with funding from the Howick－Pakuranga Chess

Club and other private sources guaranteed that the prize fund could be maintained at the same level as previous years．
It was disappointing that the support for the Major Open（as has been the trend over the las few years）was less than anticipated．The level of entries for the Championship was excellen with 20 in all，including GM，s lan Rogers （AUS）and Drazen Sermek（SLO）as well as IM Herman Van Riemsdijk（BRA）and Fairia Zakaria（MAL）．Fairin is completing medical studies in Auckland and represented Malaysia at the Chess Olympiad in Moscow．
Ian Rogers and wife Cathy are familiar visitors to New Zealand，having last compered at the North Shore Congress 3 years ago． Drazen Sermek was making his second visit， having played in the Fencible Masters in Howick in 1997．Herman Van Riemsdijk was making his first visit to $\mathrm{N} Z$ and combined chess playing with a visit to his brother，Rombout，in New Plymouth．He stayed after the event for a mini－tour of the North Island，playing several simuls and then a lecture series in Auckland， but more on this later
With one or two exceptions，most of New Zealands best players were entered，including

last year＇s winner IM Russell Dive and $1997 / 98$ champion FM Alexei Kulashko．These players were joined by FM＇s（and former NZ Champions）Paul Garbett，Anthony Ker，Bob Smith and Ewen Green．Ewen，along with Bruce Watson and Scott Wastney（who has been chessing overseas）were all making a welcome comeback to the championship． Rounding out the field were NZ Junior Champion Igor Bjelobrk（who soon moves with his family to Australia），and hopefuls Hilton Bennett，Roger Perry，Nigel Metge，Bob Gibbons，Paul Spiller and John Sutherland．
The opening ceremony began with a slightly different twist when the Howick Town Crier， replete in all his regalia，rang his bell and welcomed all competitors to the tournament． This was followed by a witty address from Pat Booth，editor in chief of Suburban Newspapers and chairman of the Howick Community Board．Pat recounted his days as a journalist for the Auckland Star where he became well acquainted with Ortvin Sarapu，who for many years ran a column in the paper．Pat then officially opened the tournament．The opening finished with a message of welcome from NZCF President Peter Stuart，on behalf of the Federation，and one from Paul Spiller as organiser on behalf of Howick－Pakuranga CC． New Zealand Championship

The Championship ran into an immediate glitch when only hours before the start NZ champion Russell Dive rang from Wellington to say he was recovering from a very bad bout of food poisoning and would be unable to make round one．Fortunately for Russell，and the tournament，he managed to drive to Auckland in time for round two，but it took a few more days until he had really completely recovered．

Round 2

This round provided some interesting games． Anthony Ker looked to be holding Ian Rogers on board 1 ，but finally succumbed in a bishop versus knight ending．Bruce Watson fought his way back to have a good chance of a draw with GM Sermek，but the wrong decision in a piece exchange left him with no chance．Drazen said after the game that Bruce played very well，and at one stage was better．
Scott Wastney was unlucky to run into his second consecutive IM，this time Russell Dive after meeting Herman Van Riemsdijk in round one．．Herman had a rematch in this round with Ewen Green， 25 years after they first played in the Nice Olympiad in 1974．（a game that was drawn）．This time Herman seized the initiative early and won after winning one too many pawns．

Round 4

The anticipated GM clash was marred by an unfortunate incident at the Hotel when Drazen， just before the round began，returned to his room to find that a considerable amount of money had been stolen from his room．This meant a delay in his and my game against Fairin Zakaria as it was necessary to report the theft in person to the Otahuhu Police Station． Unfortunately this spoiled the rest of the tournament for Drazen and he was very unsettled for the next few days，opting to leave the hotel and stay back at my home．In any event he duly drew against Ian，in a fairly colourless game．This left Sermek，Kulashko， Van Riemsdijk，Ker and Garbett all on 3 points， half a point behind Ian．

Kulashko＇s chances of an IM norm were looking stronger after his round 5 win against Anthony，as was Paul Garbett＇s after his draw with Sermek．（Ironically a draw against Sermek two years ago in the Fencible Masters tournament would have secured the IM title for Paul）．Rogers continued in winning form by giving Herman his first loss to a GM in over a year．

Round 6

The Rogers GM technique was too much for Garbett，who could not repeat his draw against Ian from the championship 3 years ago．Drazen focused hard for his critical game against Alexei and won a very tricky 2 rooks versus 2 rooks ending，thus improving his chances for the second place spot．Igor Bjelobrk created enough chances to be able to get counterplay and hold the draw against his experienced opponent．An excellent result for Igor．Earlier in the game Igor had incorrectly tried to claim a draw by threefold repetition of position．This had been the situation earlier，but Herman had since moved a pawn，and the position had changed．An interesting point that Herman shared with a few of us later was that the correct procedure when claiming a draw is to write down your intended move on your scoresheet first，then call the arbiter and claim the draw by showing the intended move．If the draw is not upheld the move written down must still be played．

Round 7

Ian and Russell played a seesaw struggle on board one in round 7．Late in the game Ian had won a pawn but his position seemed to hang on a knife－edge．Drazen commented to me that Russell could force the draw by an attack on the queen thus repeating the position．Whether Russell did not see this possibility or simply tried to win I am not sure，but when the dust settled after the time control，he had a lost position．GM Sermek agreed a draw with Anthony，an interesting position being reached after Drazen played his favourite anti－ Trompovsky system．Alexei played an insipid opening variation against Van Riemsdijk and only his fierce determination and a slip by Herman allowed him to gain the full point and now a very real chance of a norm．Paul Garbett maintained a glimmer of a norm possibility by defeating Bruce Watson．Lower down Nigel Metge presented Paul Spiller with a wooden spoon，perhaps anticipating a close race for last place！

Paul Spiller summarises

In the final analysis of the Championship, Ian Rogers proved to be a deserving winner, with a winning margin of 2 points over Sermek and Kulashko. He had his luck of course, but his superiority was indisputable.
Drazen Sermek demonstrated his grandmaster class. With a slightly more laid-back approach than Ian he was content to split the point on a number of occasions, but he exploited any weaknesses in his opponents' positions ruthlessly. He is a talented and intuitive player and his analysis sessions after the games were appreciated by opponents and spectators alike.
Alexei took the New Zealand title and again demonstrated that he has reached International Master standard. His dynamic and aggressive style constantly posed problems for his opponents and it is only a matter of time for him to gain his last norm and the IM title. Herman Van Riemsdijk and Paul Garbett both demonstrated their master class and are true gentlemen on and off the board. Herman was always most willing to offer his help to the organisers and spent a great deal of time setting up a website for the tournament, updating round by round results and providing games from both the Championship and Major Open. It also provided some additional publicity for Waipuna Hotel and results from the tournament also appeared on THIS WEEK IN CHESS. Herman has been writing a column for a major Brazilian newspaper for the last 30 years and I am sure some of the games will appear in this as well.

Anthony Ker was well deserving of his sixth place and continues to demonstrate that he is one of New Zealand's best players. He along with Paul Garbett and Alexei receive automatic selection into the Olympiad team that will be travelling to Istanbul later this year. Russell Dive will certainly be disappointed not to have finished higher this year, but considering his first round default and poor health at the beginning of the tournament it was a very creditable result. Scott Wastney can also be pleased with his final standing after a difficult start.
Thanks must be extended to all those who contributed in some way to the success of this event. Peter Stuart is a dedicated servant of New Zealand Chess and his direction of the toumament was professional and efficient at all times. Peter produced an excellent error-free bulletin on time every day, accompanied by excellent crosstables and round results which were posted regularly on the tournament noticeboard.

Help from sponsors
Sponsorship was provided by PDL Industries by way of Toshiba batteries for use in the digital clocks and New Zealand Chess Supplies providing a quantity of free stationery. North Shore Chess Club provided free use of their clocks, Spiller Enterprises Ltd made a financial contribution towards some of the overseas players' expenses and Ray Thomson made a financial contribution towards the prizefund. Without the help of these sponsors it would have been impossible to have held the tournament.

Top seed takes Major Open

Paul Beach, with a rating 100 higher than his nearest rival, eventually established a commanding lead in the Major Open and draws in the last two rounds left him a clear winner.
Rounds 4, 5 and 6 were the critical period of the tournament. William Lynn started with straight wins and met Beach in round 4. The top seed lost, and Lynn was clear leader on 4. However, southern junior Matthew McNabb, who was unbeaten after starting with two draws, won from Lynn in round 5, so there was a multiple tie at the top, with Beach, McNabb, Lynn and Wellington junior Nic Croad all on 4.
In what became the decisive game for first place, Beach beat McNabb in round 6 and McNabb's last chance of winning the event went when he lost to Henry Vital in round 8. Although he finished with three wins, draws in three of the last four rounds kept Beach safely ahead.
Philip Hair, second seed, lost only to Croad, but six draws kept him in third place, which he shared with the consistent Croad and Cathy Rogers. Cathy, Ian's wife and a popular competitor at Congress, played above her New Zealand rating to join the tie for third.
Lynn finished in a tie for $6^{\text {th }}$ with Vital and 9-year-old Puchen Wang, whose results were consistent - losses only to the top two placegetters, but a slow start with four draws which kept him from contending for a top place. Here are some of the key games.

Van Riemsdijk takes NZ Rapid，NZ title shared
Herman van Riemsdijk showed his quality in the New Zealand Rapid Championship，in which the decisive clash was his game with GM Ian Rogers in round 5．They shared the ead with a clean sweep after 4 rounds，in which both players went for a win．

The fight for minor placings and the New Zealand title went down to the wire．IM Russell Dive had to fight back after losing to Igor Bjelobrk in round 6，but a draw with Ian Rogers in the final round kept him in a tie with John Sutherland，Matthew Barlow，Bob Smith and R Pearce．

Visiting IM coaches and gives simuls
By Herman van Riemsdijk

In my first and unforgettable trip to New Zealand I had the opportunity to give a three－ day course based on my book The Final Countdown（written with Willem Hajenius）， which deals with pawn endings．Paul Spiller made the effort to organise it in the Howick \＆ Pakuranga Chess Club．It was attended by about 10 players，some of them very strong （Spiller，Gibbons，Bennett，Metge，E Green and Wang）．
It was a great pleasure to discuss with them
－the beautiful＂key－squares＂theory．＂
I had the opportunity also to give three simuls， the first one against 12 boards in Wellington， on January 17．It was held in the Shepherds Arms pub，where my friend Bill Forster meets a group of chessplayers each Monday evening．
The second one was in the Nbew Plymouth Chess Club and was organised by Errol Tuffery．It was also against 12 boards and there I had my only defeat（no draws at all！），against Michael Freeman．Maybe Michael（who I knew from several chess olympiads）proved to be too strong for a simul．This was the only time that I saw good publicity in New Zealand．The simul made the front page with photo in the local Daily News，against no lines at all on the national championships，the latter very surprising．
The last exhibition was outdoors，in the Howick Commerce Centre，on a beautiful sunny Mardi Gras Saturday．It had nine boards at the same time．During two and and half hours I played 30 games．The most interesting by far were the two I played against the best New Zealand junior，Puchen Wang．He＇s only 10 years old but already has a good technique and an amazingly good tactical feeling．You＇ll hear more of him very soon！

Waitemata CC

The feature of Waitemata Chess Club＇s latest Championship was a family quinella．Bob Smith successfully defended his title for the $22^{\text {nd }}$ year in a row，with $7 / 7$ in the finals．His closest pursuer was his wife Viv，who scored 5.5 and had Bob on the ropes in their individual game until going wrong in time trouble．The other finalists were ：Mark Brimble（5），Paul Godfrey（3．5），Roy Harish（3），Rob Calder \＆ Bruce Pollard（2）and Albert Tibble（0）．
The Reserve Championship was won easily by Alen Machina with $6.5 / 7$ ，but his rating made him ineligible for the title，which was shared by second place－getters John Lin，David Wong and Gary Collingwood（4．5）．
The Most Improved Player award went to Paul Godfrey and Roy Harish，while the Junior Cup was won by Paul Godfrey．
－Waitemata CC has a very busy year under way－in addition to the $23^{\text {rid }}$ Waitakere Trust Open，the club is organising this year＇s NZ Women＇s Champs and the next New Zealand Championship Congress．

Adams in Australia

Cancellation of a project on which he was working as a in Christchurch for IBM New Zealand led to an offer to Jonathan Adams to transfer to Sydney as a senior business analyst． Once he settled in Jonathan joined the Manly Warringah Chess Club and played in their $9-$ round summer tournament．With a provisional rating of 1700 he was seeded second and was delighted to win the event with $8.5 / 9,1.5$ pooints ahead of the runners－up．

＂Black Swan＂tournament in Queensland

My wife Viv and I enjoyed a week＇s holiday in Noosa in November and amongst the swimming，tennis，golf and shopping managed to fit in two days of chess．Seventy players turned out at the Discovery Beach Resort Hotel in beautiful weather for the Maroochydore ＂Black Swan＂Open
Top seed by some 200 points was IM Stephen Solomon．I had the daunting experience of being seeded second－a natural target for under－rated and ambitious Aussies hungry for even more sporting success．

Popular time control

The time control was a fairly popular one in Australia－ 60 minutes each plus 10 seconds a move．They rate these games fully across the Tasman
After two rounds most of the top players were on full points，including me
Viv had also started well，with two good wins． But this was where the＂under－arm bowling＂ came in．Obviously galled by two kiwis being among the 16 leaders，D．O．P．Ian Murray contrived to pair husband and wife together， Viv having black．
I played somewhat unconvincingly against her Pirc and came under some pressure．But staunch defence plus a time trouble mistake by Viv brought home the point for me．I also won my next two games－a little more convincingly－and in round six graduated to top board，with Solomon and me the only ones still with a perfect score．
Solomon，playing white，used the Panov－ Botvinnik attack against my Caro－Kann and gained a slight theoretical edge．However，with sensible play I gained the advantage and looked likely to score an upset win．But－tragedy！In a mutual time scramble I had a choice of two pawns to push．One won，the other drew．My hand automatically pushed the closer（wrong） one and Solomon escaped with a half．
This left us still tied for first with $5.5 / 6$ ，with fourth seed Nik Stawski（who I beat in round 5） and fifth seed Alain Pardoen lurking half a point behind．
The final round pairings were Stawski－

Solomon and Smith－Pardoen．
Still grieving after my slip－up against Solomon，I came out all guns blazing Pardoen＇s caro－kann barely survived the complications of an early c4！？He lost a pawn， got behind on time and then dropped a piece to a tactical trick．
Meanwhile Solomon was in trouble agains Stawski and looked as if he would be lucky to draw．Several times Stawski could have forced a draw，but decided to go for all or nothing．In the event，he got nothing after blundering a rook in time trouble－to my grea disappointment．

Tie for first
This meant Solomon and I tied for first with 6．5／7，a point ahead of Sunshine Coast player Otto Mehltreter and Paul Summers．Vivian also finished well，winning her last two games to come $12^{\text {th }}$ equal and win the Women＇s prize of $A \$ 50$ ．My prize－money of $A \$ 350$ combined nicely with Viv＇s to help towards holiday expenses．

Correspondence report

The 2000－01 trophy toumeys get under way on March 1．The current TTs conclude on March 31，with unfinished games being adjudicated．
With the death of IM Ortvin Sarapu，NZCCA lost its long－time adjudicator．ICM Roger Chapman filled in at short notice，but now a new adjudicator has been appointed
He is ICM Michael Freeman，who is based in Stratford，but plays for Wanganui．Michael， who heads the NZCCA master points list with 39.8 points，has an impressive record in correspondence chess．Competing in NZCCA events between 1977 and 1985，from 87 games in the trophy tourneys he scored 66 points at an average of 75.86 per cent．A second placing in TT2 was followed by a win in the Reserve， after which Michael played six times in the championship for the following results： $1,2=$ $2=, 4,1$ and $2=$ ．All in all，he recorded 50 wins， 32 draws and only 5 losses！
To qualify for the coveted International Correspondence Master title，Michael gained his first norm in the $2^{\text {nd }}$ Pacific area team tournament 1982－85，on board 2，scoring 4 wins and 4 draws for $6 / 8$
The second norm came in Abonyi 13 in $1991-$ 95 ，scoring 5 wins and 5 draws for 7．5／10（6．5 needed for an ICM norm）
Here are two previously unpublished games by Michael Freeman．One（a wild encounter） from the $48^{\text {th }}$ NZCCA Championship and the other（a knife edge）from overseas play in the 1994 Paul Spinath Memorial．

NZ Chess

China＇s first grandmaster，Ye，played two of the most interesting games：
By NM Peter Stuart

European team championship

Armenia added to its fine record in team competitions by winning the European Team Championship held at Batumi（Georgia）in December．Their $11 / 2-21 / 2$ loss to England in round 6 of the nine－round Swiss served only to reduce their lead to half a point．A 3－1 victory over the Netherlands increased their lead to $11 / 2$ points with two rounds to go and they came home with two tied matches including the last round clash against bronze medallist Germany． Hungary was also consistent，holding on to second place for most of the way；they needed a 3－1 win over Belarus in the last round to tie with Armenia on game points but could manage only $21 / 2-1 \frac{1}{2}$ ．Germany，too，maintained a strong challenge through the second half of the event．

Leading scores： 1 Armenia $22 \frac{1}{2}, 2$ Hungary 22， 3 Germany 21， 4 Bulgaria $201 / 2,5$ Russia $201 / 2,6$ Ukraine $201 / 2,7$ Israel $201 / 2,8$ Slovenia $201 / 2,9$ Belarus 20， 10 England 191／2， 11 Netherlands $191 / 2,12$ Czech republic 191／2， 13 Bosnia \＆Hercegovina 191／2， 14 Switzerland 191／2， 15 Spain 191／2 ．． 36 teams．

The results of Russia and England were the obvious disappointments．The former were a bunch of young relative unknowns（GM Filippov，GM Volkov，GM Kobalija，GM Galkin and IM Gritschuk）while the latter （Short，Speelman，Emms，Conquest \＆ Chandler－all GMs）were lacking Adams， Sadler and Nunn．

Russian GM Sergei Tiviakov won the 100 － player Open at the end of December with a score of $81 / 2 / 11$ ．The field boasted 15 grandmasters．

Tying for second place were the Uzbek GMs Kasimdzhanov and Nenashev together with IMs Burnett（USA）and Najer（RUS）on 8 points．Among those on $71 / 2$ were GMs Gylmesi （HUN）and Vaganian（ARM）．

Leko v Khalifman

On his home turf in Budapest Peter Leko convincingly beat world champion Alexander Khalifman $4 \frac{1}{2}-1 \frac{1}{2}$ in a six－game match played in early January．The Hungarian GM won all three games with the white pieces and drew each of his black games．

Belfort

A category 15 double rounder in December was won by Moldavian GM Viktor Bologan with $61 / 2 / 10$ ，helped by back marker Arnaud Hauchard who won both games against his closest pursuer Alexei Fedorov．

Scores： 1 Bologan 61／2；2－3 GM Fedorov （BLA）\＆GM Ye Jiangchuan（CHN） $51 / 2 ; 4$ GM M．Gurevich（BEL）412；5－6 GM Zvjaginsev（RUS）\＆IM Hauchard（FRA） 4.

Privately organised by New In Chess publisher René Olthof，this category 7 tournament afforded title norm opportunities which nobody was able to take advantage of．Dutch GM Friso Nijboer won first prize with $7 \not / 2 / 9$ with the other two GMs，Ian Rogers（AUS）and Paul van der Sterren（NLD），tying for second on 7 points．Nijboer lost his clash with Rogers but conceded only half a point in his other eight games．
The other scores： 4 IM Bosch（NLD）5；5－6 IM Hergott（CAN）\＆IM Welling（NLD）4； 7 Bücker（GER）31／2； 8 Span（NLD）3； 9 IM Donaldson（USA） $21 / 2 ; 10$ Stone（CAN） $11 / 2$ ．

Reggio－Emilia

The five grandmasters in this traditional New Year toumament took the first five places，each losing at least one game along the way．The winner was Leonid Yudasin（ISR）on 7， followed by Igor Khenkin（GER）on $61 / 2$ and then Romanishin（UKR）and Solozhenkin （RUS）6．Next were GM Efimov（ITA）and Vezzosi（ITA）on 5.

Pamplona

The strongest of the New Year tournaments was this one in northern Spain which reached category 15．Nigel Short recorded his best tournament result since his match loss to Kasparov in taking first place with an undefeated 7 points，which gave him a one－ point margin over runners－up GM Zoltan Almasi（HUN）and Boris Gelfand（ISR）． Young Spanish GM Francisco Vallejo（17）tied for fourth place with GM Joel Lautier（FRA）on 51／2．Then came：6－7 GM J．Polgar（HUN）\＆ GM Timman（NLD）4； 8 GM Illescas（ESP） 3 ； 9 IM De la Villa（ESP）21⁄2； 10 GM Magem （ESP） $11 / 2$ ．

Hastings

The oldest of the New Year tournaments was this year of category 13．Israeli GM Emil Sutovsky took first prize with $61 / 2$ points with Alexei Dreev（RUS）and Jon Speelman（ENG） sharing second place on 6 points．Murray Chandler，on the comeback trail，would probably be disappointed with his result and chagrined at his last round blunder versus Sutovsky which gave the Israeli player the full point from an equal position ？and undivided first place．

The editor at fault

There was an error in the score of the correspondence game Roberts－Williams in the last issue，for which the editor apologises．It arose from a kind of mistake which occurred for the first time since the editor has been entering games in ChessBase for use in the magazine．
Usually，when entering games from a score sheet，a mistake becomes apparent because a subsequent move can＇t be played．Benefits of using this system are that it is fast and accurate， and a minimum of checking is required．On this occasion the error slipped through．
However，the error was also the cause of the editor＇s mystification about why White resigned，and it made nonsense of the subsequent comments by the editor（and not by Gordon Hoskyn）．
Here is the correct game score：

Roberts，E－Williams，B

［C33］King＇s Gambit
NZCCA TT Reserve， 1998
气ิxd5 $6 . c 4$

Drawing attention to the error，Earl Roberts comments on Black＇s excellent play， particularly his $6^{\text {th }}$ move．He searched several sources for this move，but the only reference he could find was in a game from the World Computer Championships 1995.

NZCF annual meeting

Affiliated Clubs

Clubs are requested to advise $N Z$ Chess of any changes in details given below.

The Annual General Meeting in Auckland on 5th January was extremely poorly attended, with only six clubs represented. Two clubs had representatives present but without credentials, while another club's delegate got his dates mixed up. Whether this means that everyone is perfectly happy with the way things are going, I'm not sure! Certainly we cannot know what might have happened with regard to the three remits up for discussion if we had had closer to full representation. Only one remit was carried and had the three clubs referred to above been able to vote that too would have been lost.

The annual report and accounts were adopted, this including the financial statements for the 1992/3 and 1993/4.

Those nominated for positions on the 2000 Council were duly elected as follows: President, Peter Stuart; Vice-president, Bob Gibbons; Secretary, Daniel Johns; Treasurer, Roger Perry; Auckland Councillors, Jim Cater, Martin Dreyer and Michael Freeman. Late nominations had been received for Ted Frost (Wellington Councillor) and Graham Haase (Otago Councillor) and both were elected. There are thus three vacancies on the Council: one Auckland Councillor, one Wellington Councillor and one Canterbury Councillor.

The one remit (from Waitemata) affecting the rules related to the abolishing of most penalties for late filing or payment and this was lost on a show of hands.

The remit on fees (Howick-Pakuranga), proposing a large increase in registration fees (to $$ 30$ for adults and $$ 15$ for juniors), attracted some support but not enough to be carried. There was evident acceptance of the need for more funding for Federation operations and a smaller increase might well have been carried. Perhaps the time has come for a full review of the fee structure.

There was one further remit which, having been passed, requires the Federation to pay for tournament stationery used in Federation tournaments.

Tournament venues were also on the agenda. The 2000/1 Congress had already been awarded to Waitemata and the 2000 South Island

Championship to Otago. There were no offers for the 2001/2 Congress, nor for this year's national Junior Championship. Waitemata's offer to organise this year's national Women's Championship was gratefully approved and Civic (now Wellington CC) indicated that they were interested in organising the North Island Championship; a firm offer has since been received verbally.

NZ Games Database 2000

The year 2000 version of this database is now available, with more than 13,600 games in ChessBase format. Over 1,100 tournaments are represented, including 92 of the 107 New Zealand Championships, 36 of which are complete. There are almost 2,200 games from 1998 to date, including games from the 1999/2000 Congress in Auckland and all the main events played in 1999.
The total number of NZ Championship games is now 3580 , while there are over 2400 from events played overseas, including Olympiads, Zonals, Asian events, etc. There are also several hundred more of Ortvin Sarapu's games (now 1121 in total), including his 17 games from the Oldenburg tournament played in 1949 shortly before he emigrated to New Zealand. In this event Ortvin defeated Efim Boguljubow, who played two world title matches agains Alexander Alehine. Sarapu finished fifth, just one point behind the joint winners Boguljubow and Zemgalis. New Zealander Bob Wade finished tenth on 8.5 points.
The database is available in CBH (new) or CBF (old) format; please specify when ordering. For ChessBase Light users the database can be split in two to keep the number of games per database below 8000
Prices: $$ 89$ within NZ, incl. post/packaging Upgrades (please return diskettes): From 1999 $$ 39$; from 1998, $$ 59$. Orders and cheques to:
